

42. Please prepare a log of every contact between a current or former FERC employee and any reporter or journalist with any print or electronic news media organization regarding the FERC Study, including the name of the current or former FERC employee, the name and affiliation of the reporter or journalist, the date of the contact, the specific subject of the contact, whether the FERC employee provided access to and/or a copy of any FERC document related to the FERC Study to a reporter or journalist, whether the contact was reported to any other FERC employee (and if so, to whom?) and whether another FERC employee directed that the contact be made (and if so, who was it?).

A. On January 31, 2014 and February 25, 2014, Rebecca Smith of The Wall Street Journal filed Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) requests for information regarding the FERC Study. Ms. Smith has contacted Office of External Affairs regarding her FOIA request several times. Those contacts are not listed below. No documents have been released pursuant to these FOIA requests.

| Name of current or former FERC employee         | Name and affiliation of the reporter or journalist | Date of the contact | Specific subject of the contact                                                                                                            | Whether the FERC employee provided access to and/or a copy of any FERC document related to the FERC Study | Whether the contact was reported to any other FERC employee (and if so, to whom?) | Whether another FERC employee directed that the contact be made (and if so, who was it?) |
|-------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------|---------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Then-Chairman Wellinghoff                       | Bloomberg New Energy Finance Summit                | 04/23/13            | Speech at event with media present discussing information from of Second PowerPoint presentation. Reported in SNL Energy on April 24, 2013 | No                                                                                                        | No                                                                                | No                                                                                       |
| Then-Chairman Wellinghoff call to Rebecca Smith | Rebecca Smith, WSJ                                 | 06/13/13            | This information is not available to current staff                                                                                         | This information is not available to current staff                                                        | This information is not available to current staff                                | No                                                                                       |

| Name of current or former FERC employee | Name and affiliation of the reporter or journalist | Date of the contact | Specific subject of the contact                                                                                      | Whether the FERC employee provided access to and/or a copy of any FERC document related to the FERC Study | Whether the contact was reported to any other FERC employee (and if so, to whom?) | Whether another FERC employee directed that the contact be made (and if so, who was it?) |
|-----------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------|---------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Mary O'Driscoll                         | Rebecca Smith, WSJ                                 | 12/16/13            | Request interview with Joseph McClelland re: MetcalfRequest denied                                           | No                                                                                                        | Len Tao                                                                           | No                                                                                       |
| Mary O'Driscoll                         | Rebecca Smith, WSJ                                 | 1/27/14             | Request for interview with Joseph McClelland re: MetcalfRequest initially denied                             | No                                                                                                        | Len Tao, Jette Gebhart                                                            | No                                                                                       |
| Mary O'Driscoll                         | Rebecca Smith, WSJ                                 | 2/3/14              | Request to interview Joseph McClelland re: Metcalf (follow-up from 1/27/14 call, below)Request denied        | No                                                                                                        | Len Tao, Jette Gebhart                                                            | No                                                                                       |
| Joseph McClelland and Mary O'Driscoll   | Rebecca Smith, WSJ                                 | 02/03/14            | General discussion of FERC's approach to physical security; Discussion of need for confidentiality of FERC modelling | No                                                                                                        | Acting Chairman LaFleur, Office of External Affairs                               | Acting Chairman LaFleur                                                                  |
| Craig Cano                              | Pete Behr,                                         | 2/5/14              | Request to talk with                                                                                                 | No                                                                                                        | Len Tao                                                                           | No                                                                                       |

| Name of current or former FERC employee | Name and affiliation of the reporter or journalist | Date of the contact | Specific subject of the contact                                                                                                                   | Whether the FERC employee provided access to and/or a copy of any FERC document related to the FERC Study | Whether the contact was reported to any other FERC employee (and if so, to whom?) | Whether another FERC employee directed that the contact be made (and if so, who was it?) |
|-----------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------|---------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|                                         | EnergyWire                                         |                     | Joseph McClelland about FERC study of grid vulnerabilitiesRequest denied                                                                  |                                                                                                           |                                                                                   |                                                                                          |
| Mary O'Driscoll                         | Rebecca Smith, WSJ                                 | 2/10/14             | Request for interview someone for a story on grid securityRequest denied                                                                  |                                                                                                           | Len Tao, Jette Gebhart                                                            | No                                                                                       |
| Acting Chairman LaFleur                 | Rebecca Smith, WSJ                                 | 02/11/14            | FERC response to Metcalf; Discussion of need for confidentiality of FERC modelling; Transformer manufacture and inventory; NERC standards process | No                                                                                                        | Office of External Affairs                                                        | No                                                                                       |
| Mary O'Driscoll                         | Rebecca Smith, WSJ                                 | 3/3/14              | Seeking response to questions about a FERC study that shows taking out nine substations creates a nationwide                                      | No                                                                                                        | Len Tao, Jette Gebhart, Cheryl LaFleur, David Morenoff, Joseph McClelland,        | No                                                                                       |

| Name of current or former FERC employee | Name and affiliation of the reporter or journalist | Date of the contact | Specific subject of the contact                                                                                                                                | Whether the FERC employee provided access to and/or a copy of any FERC document related to the FERC Study | Whether the contact was reported to any other FERC employee (and if so, to whom?) | Whether another FERC employee directed that the contact be made (and if so, who was it?) |
|-----------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------|---------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|                                         |                                                    |                     | blackoutMary O'Driscoll responded that the information was not widely shared and was protected under CEII.                                             |                                                                                                           | Michael Bardee                                                                    |                                                                                          |
| Len Tao                                 | Rebecca Smith, WSJ                                 | 3/6/14              | Request for comment on quotes from an internal email that she intended to publish with attributionSee response to question 22 for response to request. | No                                                                                                        | Jette Gebhart, Joshua Konecni                                                     | No                                                                                       |
| Mary O'Driscoll                         | FOX NewsCNNCBS News                        | 3/12/14             | Seeking copy of FERC report outlined in WSJ articleRequest denied                                                                                      | No                                                                                                        | Len Tao, Jette Gebhart                                                            | No FERC employee directed that the contact be made                                       |
| Mary O'Driscoll                         | Pete Behr, EnergyWire                              | 3/13/14             | Request for response to WSJ story                                                                                                                              | No                                                                                                        | Len Tao, Jette Gebhart                                                            | No                                                                                       |

| Name of current or former FERC employee | Name and affiliation of the reporter or journalist                                                                         | Date of the contact | Specific subject of the contact                                     | Whether the FERC employee provided access to and/or a copy of any FERC document related to the FERC Study | Whether the contact was reported to any other FERC employee (and if so, to whom?) | Whether another FERC employee directed that the contact be made (and if so, who was it?) |
|-----------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|                                         | Hannah Northey,GreenwireJeff Beattie,The Energy DailyDarius Dixon,POLITICOBobby McMahon,Platts |                     | Request denied                                                      |                                                                                                           |                                                                                   |                                                                                          |
| Craig Cano                              | Katherine Tweed, IEEE Spectrum                                                                                             | 3/24/14             | Request for confirmation of WSJ story detailsRequest denied | No                                                                                                        | Len Tao, Jette Gebhart                                                            | No                                                                                       |